

Student Learning Outcomes

College: Liberal Arts & Sciences

Department: Global, International, and Area Studies

Degree Program: Bachelor of Arts in International Studies

- 1) Students will have an understanding of the “knowledge” relating to International Studies, including the ability to:
 - a. Identify its multidisciplinary approaches
 - b. Analyze the dimensions and impact of global interdependence
 - c. Address key international issues or problems within a clear theoretical/analytical framework
 - d. Demonstrate critical thinking skills in considering these key international issues or problems
- 2) Students will have in-depth knowledge of a particular world region, country or issue.
- 3) Students will demonstrate the ability to complete a comprehensive research paper related to the area of concentrated study and to communicate the research effectively in an oral presentation.