

Student Learning Outcomes

College: Arts + Architecture

Department: School of Architecture

Degree Program: Master of Architecture/Master of Science in Computer Science or Master of Science in Information Technology Dual Degree

- 1) Students will demonstrate an understanding of the fundamental typology of the application of mathematical models to architectural problems.
- 2) Students will demonstrate the ability to plan and write functional programs (of less than 250 lines of code) to engage in design inquiry and exploration.