- 1) Candidates for professional addiction counseling roles have an understanding of knowledge in their field. Candidates must also demonstrate an understanding of the contextual knowledge expected in their field to support and improve client development.
- 2) Candidates for other school professions demonstrate professional behaviors consistent with fairness and the belief that all students can learn, including creating caring, supportive learning environments, encouraging student-directed learning, and making adjustments to their own professional dispositions when necessary.
- 3) Candidates for other school professions establish positive educational environments that support and build upon the developmental levels of students, the diversity of students, families, and communities; and the policy contexts within which they work.
