

Student Learning Outcomes

College: Health and Human Services

Department: Social Work

Degree Program: Master of Social Work

- 1) MSW students will apply knowledge of human behavior in the social environment, with knowledge of social policies and social work practices in their chosen area of specialization.
- 2) MSW students will practice personal reflection to engage in career long learning.
- 3) MSW students will demonstrate professional values and abilities to make ethical decisions.
- 4) MSW students appraise the impact of a social problem on vulnerable population.
- 5) MSW students will be able to analyze social policies.