

Student Learning Outcomes

College: Liberal Arts & Sciences

Department: Public Policy

Degree Program: PhD in Public Policy

- 1) PPOL students will demonstrate basic proficiency in the core curriculum areas of public policy. Specifically this will include the nature of the field, quantitative analysis, economic analysis, and the integration of these elements of the core curriculum.
- 2) Public Policy students will demonstrate an understanding of content knowledge central to their chosen policy field (health, justice, social, environmental/infrastructure, or urban) and be able to integrate their specialty knowledge with their core elements of the curriculum.
- 3) Public Policy graduate students will demonstrate their competency to conduct successful research.