

Student Learning Outcomes

College: Liberal Arts & Sciences

Department: Geography & Earth Sciences

Degree Program: Bachelor of Science in Geology

- 1) Students will demonstrate general geologic knowledge pertaining to the composition, history and structure of the Earth.
- 2) Student exhibit satisfactory level of skills related to the field of Geology involving map interpretation, familiarity with scientific equipment used in site and terrain analysis, field-based observation, and lab testing.
- 3) Students will demonstrate the ability to verbally communicate a scientific topic to the general public and Earth Science professionals effectively.
- 4) Students will be able to produce professional/technical documents that present both quantitative and descriptive information in well-structured and organized fashion.